

Online Training – ACI Dealing Certificate New Version

May and June 2024

Structure

ACI Croatia, ACI Macedonia, ACI Portugal, ACI Romania, ACI Serbia and ACI Slovenia are presenting a new edition of training for the ACI Dealing Certificate New Version, jointly organised and aimed at promoting interaction of ideas between the participants from these countries. All these Associations are affiliated with ACI Financial Markets Association (ACI FMA), a global non-profit Association with over 6.000 members from 60 countries that represents professionals with roles in financial markets, focussing its activity in three core values: education, ethical conduct and its network of members.

Training

This Online Training is organised in a way that allows trainees from different levels of experience to be adequately prepared to acquire and implement the full Content of the ACI Dealing Certificate New Version and, if they wish, to prepare for the respective exam. With a strong practical component, the Online Training will run in a pleasant but challenging environment, in order to support for trainees to have constant communications amongst themselves.

Trainer

Mike Sandler has started his cooperation with ACI FMA back in 2002, having developed Training Courses & Workshops for the ACI FMA exams in 20 countries. As a main representative of an ACI FMA Accredited Trainer (Full Value Financial Services), he communicates regularly with the ACI FMA's Board of Education in matters related with the Syllabus of the various exams and their respective content.
